British Neurotoxin Network

2013 ANNUAL MEETING PROGRAMME

Thursday 3 October 2013

18.30 : Welcome to Oxford - Dr Sunil Wimalaratna, Oxford
18.45 : Facial botulinum toxin injections and the expression of emotions - Dr Marie-Helene Marion,London

20.00 : Dinner – Keble College Dining Hall

Friday 4 October 2013

BoNT-A treatment : How to do it?
Chair : Dr Paul Goldsmith, Newcastle
9.00 : Treatment of drooling with BoNT-A - Ms Helen Witherow, London
9.30 : Treatment of jaw and tongue dystonia with BoNT-A - Dr Marie-Helene Marion, London
10.00 : EMG and ultrasound guided BoNT-A injection in the treatment of focal dystonia; when and why?
- Dr Sabine Klepsch, Bristol
10.30 : Mechanical device for the treatment of Blepharospasm - Mr John Elston, Oxford

10.45 : Tea, coffee and refreshments

BNN matters
Chairs : Dr Richard Grunewald, Sheffield and Dr Sunil Wimalaratna, Oxford
11.00 : BoNT-A during pregnancy : a survey among UK injectors - Catherine Pearce, Cardiff University
11.20 : Use of BoNT-A for jaw dystonia and laryngeal dystonia : a survey among UK injectors
- Ms Lucy Hicklin, London
11.35 : How to move forward? Sub-committees, audits, BoNT-A school ?
11.45 : BNN Business

12.00 : Lunch - Keble College Dining Hall

New concepts in the understanding of dystonia
Chair : Prof Patricia Limousin, London
13.00 : Functional Cortical network in dystonia - Dr Diane Ruge, London
13.30 : The temporal discrimination threshold (TDT) as an endophenotype in dystonia
- Dr Sean O'Riordan, Dublin
14.00 : The vibration-induced illusion of movement as an endophenotype in dystonia
- Dr Richard Grunewald, Sheffield
14.20 : From chronic pain to dystonia, how to influence cortical reorganization with physiotherapy -
- Mr Richmond Stace, London
15.00 : DBS in dystonia: how it works? - Mr Alex Green, Oxford

15.30 : Tea, coffee and refreshments

Our neurotoxins stories in 2013
Chair : Dr Tim Harrower, Devon
15.45 : Our neurotoxins stories in 2013
16.30 : Conclusion and Close of Meeting