

2015 ANNUAL MEETING PROGRAMME

Thursday 24 September 2015

- 18.15 : Welcome to Oxford - Dr Sunil Wimalaratna, Oxford – The Ship Street Centre Lecture Theatre
18.30 : The Journey of the Neurotoxin – Professor Giampetro Schiavo, Professor of Cellular Neuroscience, Sobell Department of Motor Neuroscience and Movement Disorders, UCL Institute of Neurology, London
19.30 : Evening Reception and Dinner – Jesus College Harper Room and Dining Hall

Friday 25 September 2015 The Ship Street Centre Lecture Theatre

- 9.00 : Guidelines for non-responders in cervical dystonia, from the BNN guidelines committee, for general audience discussion and approval
10.00 : BNN Matters – Drs. MH Marion, R Grunewald, T Harrower and S Wimalaratna
10.30 : Tea, coffee and refreshments
11.00 : How to recognise a Dystonic Tremor – Dr Peter Bain, Reader in Neurology, Imperial College, London
11.30 : Is there a place for Botulinum toxin injections in ITU? – Dr Ganesh Bavikatte, Consultant in Neuro-Rehabilitation Medicine, Walton Centre, Liverpool
12.00 : Why Blepharospasm should be referred to Ophthalmology – Mr Daniel Ezra, Ophthalmology Consultant, Moorfields Eye Hospital
12.30 : Temporal characteristics of single fibers changes after BoNT-A injection - Dr Jacquie Deeb, Consultant Neurophysiologist, Queens Hospital, Romford
13.00 : Lunch Jesus College Dining Hall
14.00 : Video Session - Dr Timothy Harrower, Consultant Neurologist, Exeter
15.30 : Parallel Workshops
1. The role of Ultrasound Imaging in Botulinum Neurotoxin Injections
Dr C A Thiyagarajan, Associate Specialist, Spinal Outpatient Dept, Spinal Injuries Centre, Stoke Mandeville Hospital, Aylesbury
Dr Surendra Bandi, Consultant Spinal Injuries and Rehabilitation Medicine, Salisbury Spinal Injuries Unit, Salisbury
Dr John Edwin, Staff Grade Anaesthetist, Pain Medicine Dept., Stoke Mandeville Hospital, Aylesbury
2. The role of Physiotherapy and Botulinum Toxin in Facial Rehabilitation
Ms Sally Glover, Physiotherapist, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham
Ms Jackie Montgomery, Specialist Nurse, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham
16.30 : Conclusion
17.00 : Close